Chicago Wins at Home to Narrow Series Deficit to 3-1

Justin Verlander was not about to watch an opponent celebrate a championship on his home field.

The right-hander pitched the Chicago White Sox to victory at Guaranteed Rate Field today, staving off the Arizona Diamondbacks, who remain one game away from a title. Verlander threw 6.0 innings of shutout ball. The win cuts the series deficit for the White Sox to 3-1 in the best-of-7 series.

Max Kepler dealt the Diamondbacks a blow in the bottom of the third. Batting with the bases loaded and Chicago leading 1-0, Kepler hit a first pitch fastball for a bases-clearing double.

"I'm just happy to help the team win," Kepler told the Chicago Gazette.

The next game is set to be played tomorrow at Guaranteed Rate Field in Chicago.
